

2016 Southern Tier March for Babies Fact Sheet

what is march for babies ?

March for Babies, the nation's premier walking event is held in 900 communities across the United States and involves more than 7 million people each year.

why march in the Southern Tier ?

Lace up your sneakers and join us for March for Babies on Saturday, April 30th at Denison Park! Residents from all over the Southern Tier will gather to take the 3 mile stroll for stronger, healthier babies. March for Babies provides a memorable and rewarding day for the whole family including a family fun area, music, and food for everyone. The Southern Tier March for Babies expects to raise $71,000 to help give every baby a healthy start!

why march of dimes ?

The March of Dimes is the leading nonprofit organization for pregnancy and baby health. Each year, in New York, 1 out of 9 babies are born premature. Money raised in March for Babies funds research and programs that support:

- All-important research offering prevention and solutions for babies born too soon or with birth defects
- Education for women on how they can increase their chances of having a healthy baby
- The push for newborn screening, and health insurance for all pregnant women and children

how do I get involved ?
