What is the most important thing the day before going for a 5K race? Rest your legs? Have a power meal? Review your race strategy? Have a good night sleep? Well of course all those are important. But the correct answer that we are looking for is --- shopping for matching outfits!! That’s right!! The day before our ST. PATRICK’S DAY 5K race, 4 hours and 4 different shopping places later --- we got our green flowers and mustache socks! lol!

What are the important things at the race day?

- First of all, it is very helpful if you can remember to bring your race bib with you. Or your team member who is so sweet and caring to remind you of that in my case....And I was not the only one who forgot :) To make a long story short, all three of us arrived at the starting line just in time. Yay!!!

- Take lots of pictures! Pictures are part of the memory. Take pictures before the race when you are not sweaty yet. Take pictures during the race and after the race too! Be prepared that there will be pictures in which you look absolutely dreadful. But soooo what?! ;)

- Warm up and get ready for the race. As much as I know taking pictures could be very distracting and addictive, remember to save sometime to warm up and get ready for the race!

- Have each other’s back. Running is a lonely activity unless you run with friends, then it becomes much more fun! Keep in mind that you can always run your personal best at another race some other day, but you don’t get the opportunity often to run with the same friends, side by side, with the same flowers on your heads. And YES in case you are wondering we are the only ones who wear flowers.

- Have friends and family cheering you on! There is no word to describe how great it feels when people cheering you on, when you see your friends and family at the finishing line waiting for you, holding everything you need, chatting with you after the race, and encouraging you to keep on going. Many many thanks to everyone who showed up!
Let’s go Yangge~
CCA Colonial Day Parade 2016
Lin Lin

June 13, 2016 9 am – at Painted Post Charles St. right in front of the original Painted Post High School building, a group of CCA members were gathering together to prepare their dance for the yearly Colonial Day Parade.

Colonial Day has been a traditional local event for Corning area. The first Colonial Days was proclaimed in June, 1964 with a celebration “in official recognition of the improvements made in the business district of the Village”. After so many years it’s been one of the largest and longest consecutively held outdoor festivals in the upstate New York, including the largest professionally judged High School Marching Band parade in the New York State.

Group photo CCA members who participated this parade, including Yangge dance team, kids fashion show team, drum & gong team, logistics support team.

CCA has been involved this local festival for many years. Every other year, CCA participate this event as way to increase local diversity and rise up awareness of Chinese cultural. This year, CCA featured with a Yangge (秧歌) dance and kids fashion show. For people who are not familiar about Yangge, it is a form of Chinese folk dance originating from the Song Dynasty, which is very popular in northern China and is one of the most representative forms of folk arts. Most dancers dress in red, green or other colorful costumes, and typically use a red skill ribbon around the waist, or use dancing fan, and etc. They will swing their bodied to music played by drum, trumpet or others.

CCA team has received high praise the positive feedback, the host from the main judge station commented “We were so glad to see CCA coming back this year with a much bigger team and with the most colorful costume – bring great diversity to our event.”

To prepare this parade, CCA members have been working hard. “We cannot make this success without the hard work from everyone. They’ve kept practicing and practicing, regardless it’s raining or sunny, hot or chilly.” Says Jin Liu, the treasurer of CCA and also the lead of this dance, “We are so glad that we make contribution to increase the diversity of our community.”

Happy Mother’s Day!

Zhang Liying

Mother’s Day is a day for children to express love and gratitude to their mothers, and it is also an opportunity for young children to learn about love and gratitude. After becoming a mother, I realized the joy of watching my child grow!正值CCA组织母亲节节目招募,于是脑海中突然有个疯狂的念头:“如果两三岁孩子们在母亲节表演节目献给妈妈们,那会是多么美的一件事情!” 把这个想法和几位父母一合计: 事实是一拍即合！于是大家共同出主意，很快就定了曲子“我的好妈妈”和动作.而后开始了共计 5 次的每周一次的练习.这个比想象的困难多了，那些 terrible two, horrible three 怎么能在周末按时起床，乖乖听话呢？是所有爸爸妈妈绞尽脑汁，想尽绝招来协助练习！可以说几乎没有缺席,即使一次下雪恶劣的天气,孩子和父母也纷纷到场.

每次练习各种糖衣炮弹全部使上,父母和孩子一起唱跳,孩子们玩的 high, 丰富了周末生活，也很快练得初见成果.
但即使到表演那天还有些许不确定，家长们比孩子都紧张，孩子们的表现和状态在舞台上达到了最佳，献给妈妈们一份惊喜的礼物，也展示了他们的成长和小小担当！谢谢CCA提供这个机会和舞台，这些小小孩的练习和表演，给2016年母亲节添了精彩难忘的一段！
2016 Corning Chinese Intern Dinner

Wang Bo

Last Wednesday, we organized a Chinese intern gathering with senior colleagues at Market Street Brewery. This year, the intern class had a very diverse background; most of them are pursuing a Ph.D. degree. We had a great time talking and getting to know all the interns. It reminds me of myself around the same time last year, being new and fresh, and feeling excited to learn more about this new environment and colleagues. Now I am on the opposite side of the table, talking to them about my intern experience and knowledge about Corning. Corning generally wants to give them most memorable intern experience and want to let them explore this area as much as possible. Same do us. We recommended some local Chinese restaurants and supermarket nearby. The new interns are extremely interested in the beef noodle in Corning Class, which I also think is the best around this area.

At the end of the gathering, we took a nice picture of all of us. Now it is almost half way through their summer internship, we wish them all best of luck in their projects and also wish this summer experience would be one of the most cherished times of their student lives. Looking forward to seeing them again next year.
